

West Virginia Reading Association
WV AUTHORS FORM

Dear West Virginia Authors:

The West Virginia Reading Association, (WVRA), is celebrating its 50th year anniversary during the 2018 conference. WVRA is the oldest professional organization dedicated to eradicating illiteracy in the Mountain State. The conference, theme entitled Literacy: The Key to Success, is at the Greenbrier Resort in White Sulphur Springs on November 15-16, 2018

WVRA is delighted to invite WV Authors to once again attend the conference at a special reduced rate, of $40. This is a $60 discount off the regular preregistration fee.

Please complete and return this special registration form especially for WV authors along with full payment on or before October 17, 2018 in order to receive this reduced rate. With this rate authors will receive space at a table in the Author Interactive area currently located in the Exhibit Hall.

There will be special luncheons available each day at the rate, of $45. Author's may register for these luncheons on the attached registration form to purchase tickets.

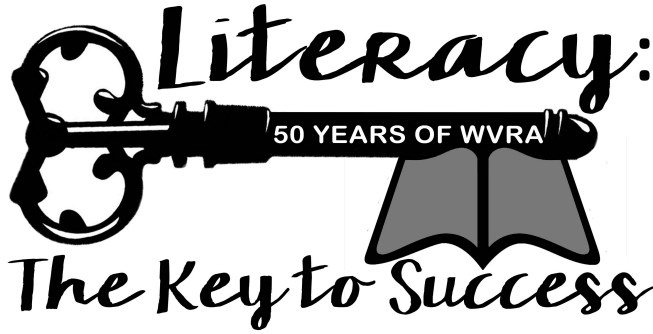

Lodging is the responsibility of the authors. A special rate is available from the Greenbrier. The form may be obtained at wvreading.com, under Conference 2018.

If you would prefer to be in the exhibit area of the Exhibit Hall, those registration forms are available online at wvreading.com and those tables are available for $250.

While at the table, authors may sell and sign as many books as they wish. Please note that all materials should fit on a standard size table and should not interfere with other authors.

Attendees enjoy visiting with authors and purchasing autographed copies of their books during the conference. We hope that this will enable authors to network with conferees and other authors. WVRA looks forward to seeing you in November.

Authors wishing to present concurrent sessions or workshops during the conference, must complete and have accepted for presentation a proposal on the 2018 Call for Proposal form on the wvreading.com website and must pay to register as a WV Author.
