Mission and Purpose

The Berkeley County Reading Council is a professional organization committed to the promotion of literacy in the home, school, and community.

We strive to:

- promote lifelong readers
- promote effective instruction
- sponsor programs, meetings, and conferences on reading
- promote literacy research
- provide leadership on literacy issues
- support fellow educators
- recognize contributions and achievements in the area of literacy

*BCRC is an affiliate of the West Virginia Reading Association and International Reading Association.
