

NCRA is a non-profit organization that welcomes all teachers, administrators, parents, students and community members. This organization is for anyone who is interested in promoting literacy in Nicholas County. The current officers include:

Jeremy Wood-President

jbwood@k12.wv.us

Cortney Walton-Vice President

cwalton@k12.wv.us

Teresa Brown-Treasurer

tdbrownbear@frontier.com

Tami Marks-Secretary

tmarks@k12.wv.us

AWARDS

NCRA has been named an International Literacy Association Honor Council for the third year in a row.

NCRA membership has grown in the last three years to over 75 members.

NCRA President, Tony Nichols has been named a West Virginia Reading Association Honor President.

NCRA Members Tony Nichols, Teresa Brown and Linda Keeney hold committee positions on the West Virginia Reading Association Executive Board.

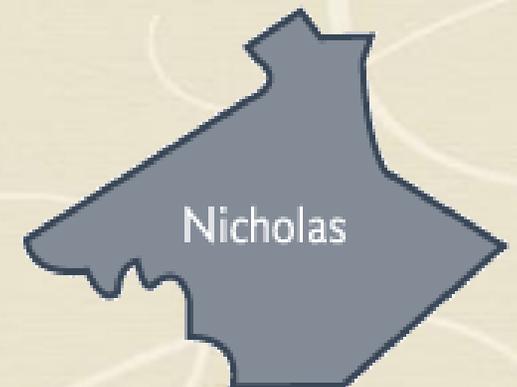

NICHOLAS COUNTY READING
ASSOCIATION
400 Old Main Drive
Summersville, WV 26651
T: 304-872-36112 x 228

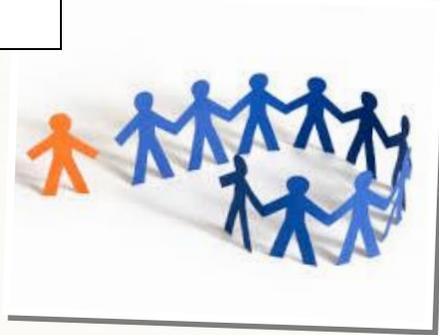

NICHOLAS

COUNTY

READING

ASSOCIATION

BECOME A MEMBER

Name _____

Telephone # Home: _____

Cell: _____

Address _____

e-mail _____

$5.00 adult $2.00 student

Make Checks Payable to:

Nicholas County Reading Association

Send to:

Tony Nichols

400 Old Main Drive

Summersville, WV 26651

OUR PROJECTS

The Nicholas County Reading Association (NCRA) is an active affiliate of the West Virginia Reading Association and the International Literacy Association. Our goals include: 1. hosting literacy events for the children of Nicholas County; 2. promoting literacy at the local, state, national and international levels; 3. providing quality professional development to teachers; and, 4. providing information to parents

YOUNG WRITERS FEBRUARY 2015

NCRA members were judges for the Nicholas County Young Writers competition and sponsored an awards ceremony in tandem with the Literature Fair.

GIVING

NCRA has sponsored literacy in the Tonga, South Pacific through Peace Corp, Jeff Davis.

NCRA sponsored fundraisers for the West Virginia Reading Association annual conference held at the Greenbrier each November.

NCRA sponsors Literature Fair held in March 2015.

NCRA honors Nicholas County Young Writers.

NCRA supports the WVRA conference at the